The only other position of circume importance in the organization of the board itself is that of chairman of the engineering committee. Farry E. Littler, the third of the senior irio of trustees, can have this post if is will accept it.

The presidency was settled by an agreement between Healy and Nance, Nance withdrawing his candidacy and Healy agreeing to support him for the presidency a year hence. But Littler had insisted that he must have charge of patronage matters, a demand said to have been dictated by the Deneen group and opposed by the Brundage and Crowe groups.

The other trio of trustees—Morris

President Cermak said he had not determined upon his program, but he suggested that he may endeavor to force an election of a new coroner by the voters next year.

50 YEARS WEL

MR. AND MRS. B. HENRIKSON.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Henrikson, 728

North Pine avenue, Austin, today will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. An interesting coincidence in connection with this celebration is the fact that they are one of three couples married at the same wedding which took place at Sheboygan, Wis., on Dec. 6, 1872. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Miller of Tacoma, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Olsen of Wittenberg, Wis., are today celebrating the same event. Mr. Henrikson until pensioned a year ago was conhected with the C. & N. W. Ry. Co. and its antecedents for practically fifty years. They have two sons, Carl I. and Allen B., and a daughter, Mrs. E. R. Millard, all residing in Austin. Mr. Henrikson is 71 years old and his wife 69.

SCORE MILLION SLASH IN TAXES

Reduction of Cook county property valuations, as reported by the board of review, will cut this year's city tax revenue (taxes collected next year) from $41,240,451 to $40,273,827, according to figures presented to the council finance committee last night by Mark Foote, controller's auditor.

This will reduce the 1922 city surplus from $1,888,000 to about $922,000, making the 1923 revenue, including the surplus, approximately $2,000,000 less than was estimated by the controller. "That ends any chance of a reduction in the tax rate by action of the city council," said Ald. Richert, chairman, who had previously preceded.

ITALY'S PROBLEM MUST NOT BECOME OURS.

Premier Mussolint of Italy is finding among the ther problems of the Fascisti government pestion of disposing of an annual increase of some 300,000 population above what can be absorbed by the agriculture and industry of his country. New York, Dec. 6.—[Special.]—Chairman William Muldoon of the state athletic commission said today that if it is proven that Battling Siki entered into a frameup in his recent fracas with Carpentier, Siki never will be allowed to do any boxing in this country. Muldoon holds Siki just as culpable as the one with whom be entered into the agreement.

M. Hellers added that he would defend himself to the limit and defied M. Diagne, the Senegalese deputy, to produce any proof of the alleged frameup beyond the unsupported word of Sitt Hellers has been ailing for several days, but rose from his sick bed last evening to attend a meeting of the French boxing federation.

PARIS, Dec. 5 .- A bill to impose an PARIS, Dec. 5.—A bill to impose an extra tax on the gross receipts of boxing matches and upon the purses of the winners was filed in the chamber of deputies today by Deputy Girod of the department of Doubs. The preamble refers to the recent speech by Deputy Diagne on the Siki case, in which be compared the excessive rewards given fighters "for taking a few punches on the nose during a few minutes in the ring" with the small amounts earned by people who really work.

Deputy Girod's bill does not fix the amount of the tax, leaving that to be suggested during the debate in the chamber. K. O. Win for Godfrey

"Deputy Diagne is making electoral propaganda of this stuff. It will go big at the next effection with his Senegalese electors, but it may not go so big in the courts when the deputy is asked to prove his charges.

"I believe Diagne's good faith has been cheated by this Senegalese. Outside of electoral considerations, Diagne perhaps is acting in good faith, but he is making a big mistake in mixing sports with politics. Sports are bad enough without being compared with some of our politics.

No Thought of Agreement.

"I have never met Siki in my life. He was pointed out to be one evening in a Montmartre ballroom, but his condition was such that it convinced me there was no possible chance of him defeating Carpentier. I would have refused to enter any agreement to let him stay four rounds, even had it been proposed to me.

"The ambition of Carpentier and myself for the close of our pugilistic life has been to get Siki once more into the ring with Georges—to get a revenge match. It would have been in a suicidal policy on our part to work for his disqualification.

"Georges doesn't want any titles which he does not earn in the ring; thus we intend leaving for American next March or April to challenge Harry Greb, who is much more qualified than Siki to wear the title of champion."

They do these things, somehow, in eastern Europe—things at once ironic and bitter and lovely—and we ponder their meanings, which is a waste of time, and surrender to their charm, which is time very well spent indeed. You may interpret "He Who Gets Slapped" as you will, but you will be best beguiled by it if you do not try to interpret it at all.

Among the odd customes were several resembling long black clowns suits, ruffled at the ankles, with white lace collars. Black wigs of wool hair and ebony caps adorned with allver horns and red feathers went with them. The wearers described them as original designs known as "the long and short of it." But there were dozens of others just as bizarre which might have been termed "the width and depth of it." "the beginning and end of it." or even "what became of the rest of it?" One man dressed as a pierrot all in white had as his partner a girl wearing tight satin breeches, with wavy, dizzy stripes running around them, a snug coat and a crownless hat. A periwigged, white stockinged colonial Beau Rrummel tripped along with an Egyptian princess, in flowing pantaloons heavily hung with beaded rope and a filmsy, silken veil of red which almost touched the floor.

Those whose birth date it is have the augury of a rear in which travel and change may come about; they are urged to keep out of lawsuits and bitter personal lisputes. The characteristics of those uorn today include a fire and brilliance that the cold earth and the sloomy sky lack. You are a fight, inerring in aim and untiring in pursuit. You have tremendous executive shiftsy and intensity of purpose, or which reasons you can hardly full o make anything but a great success f your undertakings. You should be blever in things mechanical with real nyentive skill. Children born on this lay are likely to be found leaders in whatever vocation they adopt.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am a girl of it.

Recently I came home with a boy friend. We quarreled over a thing not worth mentioning—a kiss for good-alght. Now, Miss Blake, that is nothing to be angry over, as many girls of use to kiss a fellow. I and my states went to a big dance and he was there. He didn't ask me for any dance and hardly spoke to me. He talls other boy friends of mine that he's crasy about me. What shall I do, as I am stubborn and the quarrel being his cault it's his place to talk and act right toward me? I realize I like this boy very much. How can I win him back? Should I pretend I don't care, or what? I will be grateful for advice. S. W."

Next time you see him walk right up to him and pretend nothing ever arose between you to cause disputs. Tosse him about his peeve good naturedly, later, so that he will not pursue the dissing question next time out. But don't let the quarrel remain unpatched just for a word from you.

The only way to keep teeth white and healthy Protect them from these two attacks

People everywhere are paying toll, day by day, to two deadly enemies. They are paying with the health and beauty of their teeth.

One of these enemies is dental mucin, sometimes called film. This forms on the smooth, white surfaces of the teeth, making them grad-nally ugly and discolored.

The other is the fermentation that goes on in the hard-to-reach places. Tiny food particles decompose and form acids that eat far into the tooth before you know decay has even begun. Scientists tell us that the only way to keep teeth good looking and really healthy is to guard them against both these enemies. Sanitol Tooth Paste and

The Dominion Iron & Steel Company, Limited, incorporated in Nova Scotia in 1800, owns the largest iron and steel works in Canada, located at Sydney, N. S.

It owns a sufficient quantity of iron ore to supply its works for over a hundred years. This is the famous ore deposit at Bell Island, Newfoundland, which yields about 50% metallic iron.

All of the Consolidated Mortgage 5% Bonds (closed issue) are secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a direct mortgage on the entire property now owned or hereafter acquired, subject only to the closed issue of $5,741,000 First Mortgage Bonds, for refunding which an equal amount of Consolidated Mortgage 5% Bonds has been reserved.

The provision for payment of these $4,645,000 Consolidated Mortgage 5% Bonds in United States gold in New York (not being included in the mortgage) is contained in a Supplemental Indenture, dated November 15, 1922, and is inscribed on the bonds and coupons.

The $4,645,000 Consolidated Mortgage Bonds are unconditionally guaranteed, principal and interest, by endorsement by the Dominion Steel Corporation, Ltd., which owns the entire common stock of this Company, the Dominion Coal Company, Limited, and other companies. This guaranty is provided for in a covenant dated November 15, 1922 and applies only to the Consolidated Mortgage 5% Bonds payable in United States gold.

The Net Tangible Assets, after reserves for depreciation and depletion and including only a nominal sum against the large ore holdings, equal $3,340 for each $1000 mortgage bond outstanding.

The Sinking Fund of $200,000 a year will be used to purchase the First Mortgage and the Consolidated Mortgage Bonds at the market price thereof, not to exceed their respective redemption prices.

For the past 10 years and 9 months, the yearly average of net earnings after depreciation and depletion was 3½ times the present interest requirements of all mortgage bonds.

For the same period the yearly average of consolidated net earnings of the guaranter company and its subsidiaries was over 415 times the interest on all mortgage bonds of subsidiaries, the guaranter company having no funded debt.

The legal proceedings in connection with this issue of bonds will be passed upon by Messra Molnnea, Jenks, Lovett and MacDons of Halifax, Nova Scotia, for the Company, and by Messra Root, Clark, Buckner & Howland of New York, for the banks

Ratings and Radio

Soars people dislike both the League of Nations and the Radiophone because Washington's Farewell Address made no mention of either. There may still be some who think that because Nathan Rothschild got along without investment Ratings, they too can afford to be ignorant of them.

But we now see that Radio is simply one step in the development of science, following the wireless, the telephone and the submarine cable. Just so, Moody's Ratings are part of the great growth of institutions designed to aid and protect the investor, along with the modern bank, the stock exchange and countless other contributions to hig business which the first Rothschild hardly dreamed of.

Our new booklet, "The Art of Wise Investing," will tell you all about our Ratings and Service. Send for a free copy.

Hisshare was $700-his entire savings. The business prospered. But its leader—whose name was Rockefeller—realizing the essential precariousness of the oil business, insisted that the profits be reinvested. "Let your wife wear her last year's bonnet," he said.

They were their own bankers, and when the railroads and other industries were in difficulties, Rockefeller and his associates could smile. The Standard Oil Company of Ohio, formed in 1870 with a million dollars cash capital, had no debts and was dependent on no banking alliance.

Rockefeller's foresight was rewarded. When, in the panic of '73, refineries went to the wall for want of cash, the Standard bought them in. Plants were secured all over the country. This meant large-scale production and cost below all competition. By 1879, practically every concern in the country had fallen prey to the resistless power of ready cash.

Rockefeller never forsook his dominating idea. By 1875 the cash resources of his company were thirteen millions. By 1881, forty-five millions. This despite the absorption of many competitors, and the payment of over eleves million dollars in dividends.

Legislation eventually broke this monopoly into its component and mutually competing parts. But the various

Speculation

Strange as it may seem your success in the market depends more upon when than upon what you buy.

The great basic law of Action-Reaction governs both speculative and investment markets mostly as it governs our mechanical and scientific worlds.

Changes within the concern itself cause its securities to fluctuate within a range of the 10 points. These "ripples" cannot be forecast in any way!

Artificial market manipulations are responsible for minor movements lasting for a few days or a few weeks. These "wanes" are unnatural, artificial, and are effective only as long as the pressure is kept up. They cannot be forecast in any way.

Changes in the Fundamental Conditions underlying the business world, meanwhile, cause the whole market to travel its regular cycle showing an average rise and fall—a fluctuation of around 50 points. These—the "tides"—travel with almost clock like regularity. They can be forecast with remarkable accuracy.
